

To God Alone The Glory

If you are viewed as special,
If others come to you,
Asking you to pray for them,
for healing to come through.

If you're held as one apart, dear,
Viewed as a spiritual one,
Keep in mind the truth there,
Through God alone, it's done.

To God, alone, the glory,
And Jesus points the way,
Without His loving Presence,
The ego runs the day.

Others may have placed you,
Beyond them and above,
Truly, they are One with you,
God's children, filled with love.

Reassure them always,
What you have, they have, too,
They're filled with God's great meaning,
As Living Love shines through.

Tell them, 'We are One,' dears,
God is Transcendent Whole,
No one left out, nor all alone,
Held as the One Great Soul.

Tell them that the 'know how,'
The way to understand,
Is to turn to Me, within,
Then 'take My outstretched hand!'

I'll show them how the ego,
That made up use of mind,
Has caused them to live separately,
Alone, apart, and blind.

They'll come to understand so well,
That they are God-stuff, too,
Not separate, nor alone, there,
God's Oneness shining through!

To God alone, the glory,
We sing out rapturously,
Living Love forever!
As One, with All, are We!
