

Each Person That You Meet

Can you see the beauty,
In every one you meet?
That unique individuality,
Perfection there, complete?

Remember that this one you see,
Is an eternal daughter or son,
Spiritually related,
With you, with Source, as One.

Each person's here on earth, now,
Having chosen to return,
With mission there to help assist,
Through love— to teach, to learn.

Each person that you meet today,
Has something there for you,
A chance for you to give your gift,
Or let her gift come through.

Gifts include recognition,
An interest, and some care,
Listening to this other,
To what she has to share.

You've encountered a Child of God, dear,
View her spiritually,
God hold's her in His Mind, there,
As perfect, whole, and free.

And then respect yourself, dear,
Remember who you are,
You are God's point of light, there,
You are His Shining Star!

In closing, let Me share again,
My love, to you, well known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone!
