

Let God's Light Shine Through

The daylight's getting shorter,
As winter time's soon here,
God's light, it knows no season,
Forever, shines so clear.

Love and light the same, dear,
God's meaning coming through,
The energy of creation,
Making all things new!

Love's light is like a candle,
Or like a sun's bright rays,
Transcendent Mind the Source, dear,
Love lights our darkest days.

What keeps the mind in dark dear,
Is simply ego's veil,
This fabricated mindset,
Since falsely made, will fail.

Just find your peace within, dear,
Then ask to join with Me,
Your light and love now shineth,
You've found reality.

God's light will clarify and fix,
E'en the darkest place,
Shining forth renewal,
Redeeming with God's grace.

Let this light be constant,
This means stay joined with Me,
Enveloped by this love, dear,
How radiant life will be!

Light, makes right, your sight, dear,
Love shines so you can see,
Next steps in God's unfoldment,
We'll follow faithfully.

In closing I invite you,
No urge you, it's My plea,
*Let God's light shine through, dear,
So others, too, can see!*
