

Your Attention Needed!

Pay attention to this writing,
Heed the words you hear,
A warning now is given,
Catastrophe is near!

We see the world in chaos,
Floundering in the wake,
Of a peril beyond imagining,
Life on earth at stake!

I'm not being over dramatic,
Much life on earth will end,
Near total devastation,
That's why, these words, I send.

You'll doubt that this is true there,
Seems an impossibility!
Has the scribe gone crazy?
Has she lost her sanity?

She fully trusts My Presence,
She knows I won't deceive,
And so she writes just what she hears,
This poem, dears, please believe.

What you can do right now, there,
Turn within to the Transcendent View,
Ask that I will join you,
I'll help to get you through.

No other means available,
To help you survive, and live,
Turn within to Me right now,
True guidance I will give.

Time is of the essence,
I'm sounding the alarm,
Immediately, join now, dear,
To keep yourself from harm!

Action now is called for,
Quiet thinking mind,
Find peace, then ask Me in, dear,
The answers, here ,you'll find!

*It is because I love you,
This urgency, I share,
Your needed on the earth now,
To help the others, there!*

11/15/23. Given from Jesus. Sharing is encouraged and thank you for telling other of this message, its urgency, and the necessity of joining with Me. I love you and you are never alone, for I am with you always.
