

Easter 2021

I Am Your Risen Savior

To write a poem for Easter,
Means seeing with fresh eyes,
The empty tomb and what it means,
To know I did arise.

It means your Risen Savior,
Is living still this day,
Dwelling with you always,
And showing you the way.

I am your Risen Savior,
Saving you from ego's lies,
The lie you're all alone there,
That only you are wise.

My Presence means aloneness,
No longer haunts your mind,
Together, now and always,
True friendship you will find.

Your Friend, your Guide, your Savior,
A companionate supreme,
Brings forth for you God's meaning,
His Love, a steady stream.

This Living Love heals all there,
Transforms, makes all things new,
A constant Easter blessing,
This meaning's there for you.

Call on your Risen Savior,
Let's joy in song this day,
Sing Easter's Alleluia's!
We're joined as One, God's way!

In closing of this Easter poem,
Your Savior tells you true,
I love you deeply as My Own,
I'm always there for you.
